

Through with Chew Week February 2008

On Friday February 22, Station Mall was the setting and location for the Schools Without Borders DARE to be TOBACCO-Free challenge. Event activities included:

- SCRUB THE GRUB where a contestant was timed in scrubbing away the effects of chewing tobacco from Mr. Gross Mouth
- CHEW TINS KNOCK OUT and DARE VICTORY DANCE.
- Participants were entertained by a Sumo Wrestling mock contest between youth and the tobacco industry.

Local radio station YES 99.5 was on hand to broadcast live from the event and invite everyone at home to come down and join in.
