

Farewell Wishes to Peer Leaders

The Algoma Youth Action Alliance wishes to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of our 5 peer leaders and 1 volunteer that soon will be moving on to life's next adventure and leaving behind their work with Algoma Public Health.

Volunteer Stephanie Kwolek will be attending the University of Western Ontario, pursuing a degree in health sciences. Peer Leader Sara Ozga will be attending Sault College to pursue her interest in teaching. Peer Leader Kendra

Addison will be attending Sault College in the police foundation program. Peer Leader Amanda Blackstock will be attending Lakehead University's concurrent Ed program. Peer Leader Jacinda Mann will be attending the engineering program at University of Ottawa. Peer Leader Brigitte Roberge is moving to North Bay and is hoping to join the Youth Action Alliance of the North Bay health unit.

