

On Monday June 8, 2009 the Sault Ste. Marie site of the Youth Action Alliance, School Without Borders hosted an evening event for parents, community partners, Algoma Public Health support staff, and new and graduated committee members. The evening highlighted the 2009 accomplishments of the youth committee and plans to expand their health promotion activities in the future.

Rachel Rowswell and Corina Artuso present the opening remarks for the evening.

Dr. Allan Northan and Youth Advisor Corina Artuso present coalition member Alex Boston with her certificate of appreciation.

Public Health Nurse Janet Allen speaks to everyone about possibilities for the future of Schools Without Borders.

Coalition members Katherine Dubreuil and Kassandra Yun present a slideshow of all the events we've accomplished over the past year.

Coalition member Kylee Adam is presented with her certificate of appreciation.

Graduated and highly respected SWB member Stephanie Kwolek presents a speech about what the coalition has done for her in life. She is currently involved in a similar coalition at her university.

A gift is given to Christina Luukkonen, our fantastic clerical. Without her SWB wouldn't be nearly as successful!

Rachel and Katherine present their closing remarks and thank Corina for everything she has done for the coalition.
